

Lanka Leather Fashion

One of Asia's most renowned leather manufacturers and suppliers to fashion brands such as Hugo Boss, Gerry Weber, Michael Kors and Taleco, Lanka Leather Fashion (Pvt) Ltd demonstrated its commitment to being an environmentally conscious company in 2015 when they obtained the CarbonNeutral® Certification. The certification was awarded following a detailed GHG Assessment, which was compliant with the Carbon Disclosure Project, CarbonNeutral Protocol, WBCSD/WRI GHG Protocol and the ISO 14064 Standard.

As a result of their commitment towards being a sustainable enterprise, Lanka Leather Fashion have continued to be CarbonNeutral® for 5 consecutive years to date.

“Sustainability plays a key role in the business operations at LLF. Our efforts to become CarbonNeutral® are in line with our core mission to preserve natural resources, contribute towards conservation and mitigate our impact on the planet. We appreciate the guidance the Carbon Consulting Company has provided us for the past five years and look forward to working with them to build a greener future.”
